Workshop Tuition and Hotel Information

Tuition includes all instruction, books, training materials, supplies, social and recreational activities, and workshop related field trips.

The workshop tuition fee is US$5,450 if 50% of the fee is received before March 30, 2009. The balance of the fee must be paid by April 30, 2008. After April 1, 2009, the tuition fee is $5700 and must be received in full by May 1, 2009.

The hotel fee is $132.50 per night. This package price includes occupancy taxes and gratuity. The hotel fee includes room, breakfast, weekday lunch and breaks. This fee does not include dinner or lunch on the weekends. The sponsor is responsible for providing the participant with per diem funds for these plus other incidental items. Because the number of nights is dependant upon when the participant arrives, please calculate at a minimum 21 nights as a base for the required 50% hotel deposit.

Cancellation Policy

In the event of a cancellation, the Johns Hopkins University will make every effort to find another candidate when given proper advance notification. Recommendations for substitutes will have to go through the regular admission process. By May 1, 2009	Full refund of tuition & hotel accommodations
After May 1, 2009	50% refund of tuition, hotel deposit is nonrefundable.-

Notice of cancellation must be made in writing by May 1, 2009 to receive a full refund. JHU/CCP will mail a confirmation notice to the sponsor upon receipt of written notification of cancellation. Insurance and Visa

United States health insurance is mandatory for international participants. The sponsoring agency will be responsible for providing the participant with short term health and accident coverage.

If you are being sponsored by a US Institution or organization, you must obtain a J1 visa. If your funding is through international or personal sources you may apply for a B1/B2 visa. Johns Hopkins University does not provide financial assistance to applicants. Applicants may find it helpful to consult with the country's national AIDS committees, the Ministry of Health, community services or may want to check with local offices of international organizations such as the World Bank, the World Health Organization (WHO), the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), the United States Agency for International Development (USAID) and USAID supported agencies, or private foundations. Applicants seeking funding for this program are advised to contact potential sponsors as soon as possible. Please note that we are not in a position to be an intermediary between applicants and funding organizations.

CCP can assist in the completion of the J-1 Non-Immigrant Status Visa application and will serve as the workshop sponsor in this respect but will not provide this service for the participant unless there is proof of financial sponsorship for workshop tuition and hotel fees. Please note that although we are assisting with the application process, we can not guarantee that a visa will be issued at any US Consulate office. There is also a $50 administration fee for all visa applications processed by the center's OIS office. Once that application has been processed, JHU is required to pay a $100 SEVIS fee to Homeland Security. This fee will be added to your final tuition payment and must be received before visa final documents are issued to the applicant.

Due to increased security checks at U.S. Consulates overseas, it can take several months to secure the appropriate visa stamp to enter the United States. Please plan accordingly and allow 2-4 months for the CCP and the U.S. Consulates to complete the necessary paperwork.
